RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION POLICY

Preamble

The Related Party Transaction Policy (RPT Policy) is framed as per the requirements of Regulation 23 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations) and applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) and intended to ensure the proper approval and reporting of transactions between the Company and its Related Parties. Such transactions are appropriate only if they are in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders.

This policy is framed so as to govern the transparency of approval process and disclosures requirements and also to ensure fairness in the conduct of related party transactions, in terms of the applicable laws.

The Audit Committee shall review, approve and ratify Related Party Transactions based on the RPT Policy in terms of the requirements under the above provisions.

The Board of Directors reserves the power to review and amend the RPT Policy from time to time. Any exceptions to the RPT Policy on Related Party Transactions must be consistent with the Act including the Rules promulgated thereunder and Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations and must be approved in the manner as may be decided by the Board of Directors.

Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions

The Company Secretary shall at all times maintain a database of Company's Related Parties containing the names of individuals and Companies, identified on the basis of the definition, along with their personal/company details including any revisions therein.

The Related Party List shall be updated and reviewed from time to time and at least once in a year.

For the purpose of implementing the provisions under this Policy, the Board and the Audit Committee of Directors of the Company shall receive timely, full and sufficient information about the Transactions covered under this Policy.

In determining, whether to approve or not a Related Party Transaction, the Board will take into account, among other factors, recommendations of the Audit Committee, whether the said Transaction is in the interest of the Company and its stakeholders and also ensure that there is no actual or potential conflict of interests between the related parties.

Review, Approval and Ratification of Related Party Transactions

All Related Party Transactions shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee and thereafter recommended by the Committee to the Board for approval.

Individual transactions with Related Parties, which are not in Ordinary Course of Business and not on an arm's length basis and all material related party Transactions, shall be accompanied with Management's justification for the same.

Before approving such transactions, the Committee will look into the interest of the Company and its Stakeholders in recommending the Transaction(s) and the benefits. The Committee may accordingly recommend and/or modify such transactions, in accordance with this policy to the Board and/or Shareholders for final approval, as the case may be.

Each director and key managerial personnel is responsible for providing notice to the Company of any potential Related Party Transaction(s) where he may be considered interested. Audit Committee will determine whether a transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy. The Directors and KMPs will ensure that their notice of any potential Related Party Transaction(s) is delivered well in advance so that the Audit Committee has adequate time to review the same before recommending it to the Board.

The members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to such conditions as defined in Listing Regulations.

Omnibus approval

Audit committee may grant omnibus approval for related party transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company or its subsidiary.

In the case of Transactions which are frequent, regular and repetitive in nature and are in the Ordinary Course of Business of the Company, the Audit Committee may fix up limits within which the management may carry out such Transactions without any approval of the Audit Committee. Further, it shall periodically review and assess such limits and revise the same as deemed proper and ensure that they are in compliance of this Policy and the guidelines herein.

The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company.

The omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative case price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

Provided that where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs. 1.00 crore per transaction.

The Audit Committee, shall review at least on a quarterly basis, the details of RPTs entered into by the Company or its subsidiary relating to every omnibus approval given.

The omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one financial year and shall require fresh approval for every subsequent financial year.

Material Related Party transactions and subsequent material modifications

All material Related Party Transactions and /or their modifications exceeding the materiality threshold limits as prescribed in the Act/Listing Regulations shall require prior approval of the shareholders of the Company.

All entities falling under the definition of related parties shall not cast their vote(s) to approve the aforesaid relevant transaction(s) irrespective of whether or not they are a party to the particular transaction or not.

A transaction with a Related Party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds such amount as prescribed under the Act and /or Listing Regulations.

Notwithstanding the above, a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed such amount as prescribed under the Act and /or Listing Regulations.

- a. “Material Modifications” means a substantial modification to any Related Party Transaction which changes the nature /tenure of the transaction earlier considered by the Audit Committee while approving it for the first time.

- b. Change/Variation/modification in an existing related party transaction/contract/ arrangement, the financial effect of which is an increase in the per annum value /rate of the relevant related party transaction/contract/arrangement by 20% or Rupees Five crores, whichever is higher.

EXEMPTIONS

Explanation: 1 - Omnibus approvals as approved by Audit Committee, re-imburements as per the agreements entered into and approved by the Audit Committee on arm's length basis, shall not constitute modification.

Explanation: 2 - The provisions of sub-regulations (2), (3) and (4) of Regulation 23 of SEBI LODR, 2015 shall not be applicable for:
